SCHOOLS STARVED BY UNEQUAL TAXES, FEDERAL NATIONAL SAYS DR. M'KELWAY

Washington Man's Charges of Rule of District by Triumvirate Puts Wilson on Trail.

"Our schools and other institutions are starved for want of funds, a situation directly related to and caused by the inequitable system of taxation in

So said Dr. A. J. McKelway, who re turned to the city today from New York and Hoboken, where he spoke on 'Washington, the Model City" at a conference of social workers attended by President-elect Wilson, and at which Dr. McKelway charged that the District of Columbia is governed by a triumvi-

Dr. McKelway refused to enlarge upon the official report of the conference of social workers with Mr. Wilson. He did not dwell on the actual needs of Washington, so far as institutions of social service are concerned. Tells Needs.

Today to The Times, he told what he believes some of those needs to be. "We ought to have inspection of private as well as public charitable institutions in the District," said Dr. Mc-Kelway. "The New York Board of Charities has that power. Any enlightned community ought to have the same power over any institution for unfor-tunates of any kind.

Private institutions are necessary but the public ought to know what is going on inside them. I will go a step farther and say, even if it is not a popular thing to say, that there ought not to be Governmental subsidies of private institutions.

"The question of more funds for our starved schools and institutions relates directly to the question of equitable taxation, concerning which I said what was reported.

was reported.

'Dr. McKelway told President-elect Wilson that taxation was lowest in the privileged district and highest in the home districts.

'Under any equitable system of taxation we would have ample funds for all legitimate purposes. I base my information on the George report. Ought To Read It.

"Every citizen of Washington ought o read that report. It has been atecause Mr. George is a single taxer, and the 'mpression is sought to be conveyed that the eGorge report is a single-tax proposition. Conveying the impression that there is single tax advocacy in the report is just drawing a chrring across the trail."

In this figure of speech Mr. McKelway echoed somewhat the President-elect.

who said: "Dr. McKelway excites me because he put my nose on a fresh trall and that kind of a train I always folw with zest."
Dr. McKelway declares that as cor ditions are now. Congressmen are scrutinizing every appropriation for Dis-trict needs with care because they are aware that they are appropriating mone out of the general public fund and fee responsible in the matter.

Urges Change. as indicated by Mr. George, so that the revenues of the city will be increased, and he would have the citizens of Washington govern themselves and handle their own money.

"Let the citizens of Washington conduct their own finances." said he. "and let Congress make additional appropriations with the object of not only making the city beautiful but Police Are Searching for Man to call attention to the fact that this is the National Capital.

This is the only English-speaking city of any size at all in the world in which its citizens have no word to say about the government of them-selves. It is distressing that we who reside in Washington must face a condition, and we hate to be not only disfran-hised, but also seemingly mendicants."
